To Whom It May Concern

Jimmy Goldfarb from In Other Words, was hired as a Technical Writer and Graphic Artist for Elscint (later Picker and now Philips) and worked with us for over 10 years in this capacity.

Jimmy has always proven to be highly professional in his work, knowledgeable of all necessary software programs required and motivated to get the job done on time. His endless patience and eye for detail produced excellent and high level results in both his documentation and drawings.

Jimmy has the ability to work on several projects simultaneously – web design, books, graphics and online help projects – all performed successfully and effectively on schedule.

Jimmy also possesses excellent teaching skills – he trained several technical writers on specific software programs with infinite patience and diligence. His easygoing manner and even temperament made him a pleasure to work with.

Jimmy will surely prove to be an asset in any task that he undertakes and successful in all his endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Chaviva Epstein,
Web Project Manager and Sr. Technical Writer
